

Shalom, with all the events that have taken place in the last 24 to 72 hours, I know some of you have been waiting for me to send out a newsletter. I wasn't really planning on doing so, because basically at this point I don't really know what else there is say except to keep each other and all of Yahuahs people in your prayers.

My Abba has tried to warn people concerning these days for about 50 years. One of the first things that Yahuah taught him after he was converted was that Yahuahs people were going to go through the Great Tribulation. Which greatly "upset" his brothers and sisters who had been in the false church system already for some time, and they were quick to tell him "how wrong he was". As this truth alone greatly destroys many false church teachings. But now we all are witnesses of this day and hour.

We also warned before (and ever since) the abomination was performed on Mount Olives on pagan sept 27th 2019, that on Yom Teruah/Day of Trumpets 2019 - 1st day of the 7th Scriptural month (sunset pagan sept 28th ~through~ sunset sept 29th) was both the first day of the Great Tribulation and of the 1290 days of Daniel. We all know what began shortly after and all the many events seen since that time, including the roll out of the mark and number of the beast.

Besides many posts and newsletters, we also made two video teachings almost a year ago concerning the great tribulation, mark of the beast, and more. And then the third video we put up about three weeks ago, that Abba titled "The 3rd Year of Great Tribulation - The War Against Yahuahs People". I'll put the links to all 3 of these videos at the end of this email.

And yes, as of this past Yom Teruah/Day of Trumpets (pagan calendar sunset oct 6th ~through~ sunset oct 7th 2021) we entered into the 3rd year of tribulation, and we continue to see the fulfillment of the prophecies written in Yahuahs Word concerning these days being fulfilled at an ever-quickening pace. Yet with all that is being witnessed, just as it was in the Days of Noah, it IS Still catching most of the world by surprise as was Written would happen... because people do not believe, and have rejected, Yahuahs Word which has caused them to remain blind.

What is being seen right now is the beginning of the Gog-Ma Gog war, aka WW3. I have watched and read the responses from many people on different sites, from what they have stated and shared, that they are shocked by what is taking place in Ukraine. Yet still most don't believe this will go further or etc. For most of the people in the western nations, war is something they watch on the news...

Although it is expected, to me what is more concerning is if people are this shocked by what they see on videos about a nation far overseas that most people know nothing about... what are they going to do when it's happening in the nation they dwell in? When they hear about cities they know coming under attack... when power and communications go down and they can't get updated information, or know if their family and friends are safe or even alive... when they see jets or missiles going overhead, see explosions and other... or even see mushroom clouds in the distance in the general direction of a major city or military base....

We have warned for many years that people need to be aware that these things were coming, and try to become spiritually, physically, and mentally prepared. To be out of the cities, to get prepared with necessities as best as they were able, to read and study Yahuahs Word and understand this was coming and come to terms with that. I know it may be "easier" for me to say, having been raised and taught from a child up knowing these days were coming and see the things leading up to this time.

Yes, it is a very sad time to see come to pass and to witness these things happening. As is written this will be a time that never has been nor will be again [Matthew 23:21]. But as are these days of Great Tribulation, the speed and magnitude of events are only going to greatly increase in the weeks and months ahead.

Just as it has been with the Truth of Yahuahs Word, people have rejected and refused to believe the truth of the many created events that HAVE BEEN taking place for many years leading up to this time. And now, as we warned would happen, the planned convergence of many major events is taking place right now all coming to a head very quickly. Yet most people still continue to refuse to believe what IS happening, let alone what is now directly ahead.

Again, understand that the talmudic pharisaic elites are controlling BOTH SIDES, as they are the "top" of the beast system, and to whom satan gave them the dominion over the nations of the earth. This is not about nations squabbling or even valid reasons. This has all been planned and orchestrated by the elites creating events to further their agenda. At which we are now at the precipice of the events they believe will bring about their "ultimate goals". This is why this is the time that satans wrath is being poured out, which is why this time is called the Great Tribulation. As it is first and foremost the war against Yahuahs people who are striving to serve Him by becoming obedient to His Word. And secondly all of physical Yisrael, even those who do not serve Yahuah. And then last all the rest of mankind.

Yahuah tells us in His Word that the destruction of babylon will happen suddenly, even in "one hour". The US makes up a large portion, or could even be called the "head", of modern day babylon. Whether people refuse to believe it, or have accepted it and have prepared... either way this destruction IS coming to the US and the rest of the "western nations", and all nations.

If I can convey anything in this email, it is the need for people to try to grasp what this will mean for you personally. How it will affect you due to where you live, or where your other family members live. As almost everyone either lives in or will have some family in major cities, or in the military, etc. How will it affect you when you can't reach them on the phone. When you can't hear the "news" to know what is happening, if the city, area, or state your family members are in has had a major event happen there. And if so how bad.

People need to try to accept that they are going to see these things happen, and deal with that now to try to prepare for it. Or else it will be such a shock and turmoil in their minds, many people will not be able to deal with it. Even people who have tried to prepare, may become so stunned that they just sit down and give up.

Yahuah warned in His Word that people's hearts will fail them from fear because of them seeing the things that come upon the earth [Luke 21:26]. Yes this can be the physical heart, and I'm sure that some people will literally die from heart attacks when they see these things happen. But also realize that most often in the Word when it speaks about the heart, it is talking about a persons Mind.

I can't put into words what the reality of these things will be when they happen. And yes it will be far worse than what we can "imagine". But what do you think it will be like for those people who currently (and continue to) think these things are "unfathomable" and "impossible", when it hits them in the face all at once.

Many people in Ukraine are facing this now. I saw the video of how most of the Ukrainian people didn't think anything else would happen with some even stating as much, even After Russia moved their military into the two states that declared independence. The common people as a whole didn't do much of anything, until after the missiles began to hit military targets inside Ukraine. THEN people began to panic and run to the stores and buy food and whatever they could, run to the fuel stations and get what fuel they could, then the highways became grid locked by people trying to flee out of the cities. We have stated for Many Years that this is exactly what will take place here in the US and most nations.

Only now are some people in eastern Europe beginning to question how "impossible" such events could really be for their nation. But people further away from that area, such as most of Europe, UK, US, Canada, Mexico, Australia, etc for the most part have not even given it thought yet. If anything most people think the worst that can happen is what will be claimed as "cyber attacks", when they will take down communications, power grid, etc. And most will expect that will only be for short durations, such as hours or a day. Let alone any further events.

And yes as we have warned for about the past year, as they stated this is their "dark winter". And even though they are referring to mass death in general with that statement. Power and communication blackouts is likely the first thing that people will begin to experience, which can begin at any time now. And it is likely that the first "waves" of this may be for hours or days, and likely will end up with "rolling blackouts". This will cause panic, the grocery stores and fuel stations will empty, markets and the dollar will nosedive or collapse, and much more. But it will Not stop there.

No matter if by air or ground, done by “inside” or “outside” forces... we have discussed their “blackjack” scenario for many years. This time directly ahead in coming days is the highest possibility for such an event to take place across the western nations than ever before. If this is how it plays out or not, I do not know. But we do know that to most people, the destruction of babylon will happen suddenly, along with all her wealth (stock markets, currency, trade, etc) as is Written in the Word.

As these events progress, it is what the talmudic pharisaic elites will use to get the people of the nations to call for WW3. Just as with what happened in WW1 and WW2, they always use events in order to get the people to react and get fully behind and demand the nation go to war to “stop/destroy the enemy”. This has already begun once again as is now being witnessed by many people’s statements, and protests beginning in different nations and cities, demanding that Russia be stopped and etc. News reporters asking “government officials” why hasn’t more been done already to stop Russia. And much other. But when these additional events are used, those questions and protests will turn to outcries and demands from the people across the Western/EU nations especially. Which is the elite’s full intent.

As I stated in one post today about a protest in London, Quote: “we have stated for years now about how they use media and created events to get people of a nations "behind the cause", to call for their "pre-planned solution". Just like they did with pearl harbor, 9-11, and many other events. They use things to get the people to react with (in this case) "Stop Russia!"... well we know the direction that is headed...

BUT even though a small number of people calling for this has already begun... we have NOT YET SEEN the "MAIN EVENT" to really get the populations of ALL the western nations to really rally behind the push for War. And that that SHOULD BE VERY UNSETTLING to say the least... because to get the people in all the western nations to rally behind what is WW3.... it would have to be an Event, or more likely many Events which happen simultaneously across the western nations. Further, for such a rally it will have to be an event of such magnitude and psychological effect, that it gets people into a "fight or die trying" state of mind to call for WW3. Of course the people in the western nations, and especially the US, for the most part believe their nations are "untouchable".

In short, it is most likely that power and communications outages will be next. Banking and economy of course is also another major psychological effect as well, as if say all card readers stop working and people suddenly can’t buy anything at the store. When they do start to work again, what do you think people will do when they as themselves the question “what if it happens again? what if next time they never work again??” or etc

After those events, if you can see the news, you will likely hear about NATO having “emergency meetings” and etc. Then there will be an announcement that most likely will state something to the effect that NATO has invoked “Article 5” at which time military action through a “united NATO force” against Russia will begin. Of course Russia is not alone, as we have warned for many years about the BRICS nation alliance. They will have China, Indian, North Korea and others who at that time will openly state and show their military unity. And the Gog-Ma Gog war will continue to escalate from there.

I’m not saying this is 100% the way it will go. But from what we have known for many years was coming, part of which has already happened, and what is taking place now. This is what I do believe in general will come next.

I state these things in this email because people need to get mentally prepared to realize they are going to witness these things take place. And most people are not prepared at all, and those people will be in utter shock and disbelief. They will not be able to handle it and will basically shut down or freeze up, not being able to accept and do whatever they can when faced with the situation they are seeing. Others will go into “panic mode” which also accomplishes nothing, as if they do try to do anything it will be on a pure broken emotional state.

*EDIT: I sent this out too quickly last night and missed the entire point of this.

Pray and ask Yahauh to strengthen your heart/mind. That even when you witness all these things coming upon the earth, that you will not be shaken, that you will not be moved. As you can not help yourself, your family, or others if you can’t deal with what is taking place.

I tried to share some of the links and videos on our fake book pages. Shared a lot more on our telegram channel. Regardless, this is likely to continue to escalate quickly. This will go beyond Ukraine borders, the elites are going to make sure of that. The only question is exactly how quickly, which in any case you can bet it will be a short time.

We pray for All of Yahuahs people across the nations, who are those striving to serve Him by seeking the truth and becoming obedient to His Word.

~Shalom... even though there is no peace in these days of great tribulation
